

discussion of it. I was going to withdraw it to offer an amendment so if they want to take the time to debate this motion, then we can debate it and I'll still offer my amendment anyway.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: All right, but just in order to get the matter (interruption). Anyway to get it to a head, Senator Chambers. That's the only thing the Chair is interested in. So whatever you want to do. I think a motion probably would be the quickest way.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I move to withdraw the kill motion. If you want to debate the kill motion and then try to defeat it then I have an amendment which I am going to offer anyway, but my motion is to withdraw the kill motion.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: All right, motion is to withdraw so we get it to a head. Any discussion? Senator Goodrich, did you move the question?

SENATOR GOODRICH: Any lights?

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: All right, are there five hands? You're moving the question. That would be the cease debate. At this point I see five hands. The motion before us is to cease debate. All those in favor vote aye. Opposed nay. Have you all voted? Motion is to cease debate on Senator Chambers' motion to withdraw his motion to indefinitely postpone LB 902. All right. CLERK: 27 ayes, 3 nays on Senator Chambers' motion to withdraw his indefinitely postpone motion.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: All right, Senator Chambers' motion is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers moves to amend LB 902. He moves to amend by striking all references to "City of the Metropolitan class".

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: All right, the Chair recognizes Senator Chambers on his amendment.
